Message from the Executive Director

On Friday, August 8th we celebrated our fourth annual Backyard BBQ fundraiser for the Skyline Foundation. We are still waiting for some last-minute donations and sponsorships to come in but right now we are estimating that just over $29,000 was raised for the foundation. For those of you that volunteered, brought individuals out so that they could enjoy the event, helped set up, helped clean up, and bid or purchased items at the event, I send a very heartfelt "thank you". The BBQ has become the primary source of funds for the Skyline Foundation and the event couldn't happen without so many people coming together, working hard, and attending the event.

I often am asked about the Skyline Soup Supper and if we are ever going to have one again. It is funny because I get the impression that the Soup Supper was not only a great fundraiser but also became a staple of our community over the years. If I am not getting asked about having the supper again, someone is always saying to me "I remember when Skyline used to have the Soup Supper and....." which is followed with a story about an experience they had at the supper. As with anything, times change, and things evolve. At one point, we shifted gears from soup to grilled burgers & hot dogs, and the transition was successful. In fact, I would go so far as to say that the Backyard BBQ is a new staple of our community and is definitely our signature fundraising event. Even more than I am asked about the Soup Supper, people are continually asking me about the band for next year's event, the dunk tank contestants, the so many other things that tie to our BBQ. We do not typically take attendance, but I can tell you that from what I have witnessed the crowds tend to get bigger with each passing year. The event continues to grow, and we continue to get better at putting it on, so my gut tells me the BBQ is here to stay. Well, unless we can find a way to morph into the Skyline Foundation Annual Pizza Palooza or the Skyline Foundation Annual Taco Tailgate Party. Those are perhaps the only two foods that I like better than a good burger.

Thank you for supporting the event and thank you for helping to raise funds that support and impact the individuals that we serve!
